

Clinical Profile

Derrick Antes, PT, DPT

ABOUT

Derrick Antes, PT, DPT believes positivity is key throughout the rehabilitation process. Having the right mindset will set you up for success. He brings happiness, motivation, and optimism to the patients he treats. He was born and raised in Vallejo, CA. Following high school, he went to Oregon and Florida to continue his education. He strives to help you get back to doing what you love to do, whether it is sports, your profession, or your daily activities.

Physical Therapy Services Offered

- Sports Specific Rehabilitation/ Performance Programs
- Blood flow restriction training
- IASTM, Cupping,
- Injury Prevention
- Improving functional movement
- Back/Core Stabilization Program
- Orthopedic Rehabilitation
- Personal and Auto Injury
- Total Joint Recovery
- Pre- and Post- Surgical Conditions

Education and Certifications

- Bachelor of Science
Exercise and Sports Science
Oregon State University
- Doctorate in Physical Therapy
University of Miami
- Blood Flow Restriction Certified
Provider
- Emergency Medical Responder

He is a recent graduate from the University of Miami. During his time in Miami, he had experience working with collegiate and professional athletes from multiple sports, children, and weekend warriors. Some of his internships included the University of Miami Training Room, Force Physical Therapy, and Bascom Balmer Physical Therapy. His love for sports and physical activity is what led him to the profession of Physical Therapy. Throughout his life, he was always involved with football, baseball, and basketball. He has also played in a “semi-pro” football league in Oregon.

Sports Plus Physical Therapy
7189 Advanced Way
Las Vegas, NV 89113
Office: 702.777.7050
Fax: 702.777.7051